Quan De Trading asked about the status of the claim for the repair of SGT636C.

Can you assist to liaise with them on the claim asap?

Thanks.

On 15 Dec 2016 at about 0955hrs, our department unmarked vehicle SCJ2781C was involved in a traffic road accident with 2 Singapore-registered vehicles (henceforth referred as V1 and V2 respectively) along Pan Island Expressway (PIE) towards Changi Airport, near Eng Neo Avenue (exit 22).

V1

Vehicle Reg Number : SGT636C
Vehicle Made and Model : BMW 523i
Insurance : EQ Insurance
Owner : Luxs Leasing & Limousines Services Pte Ltd
Driver : Cheong Kah Fai (M / 02.10.1992)
NRIC : SXXXX231J

V2

Vehicle Reg Number : SGY5392X
Vehicle Made and Model : Volvo S60
Insurance : NTUC Income
Owner : Teo Seng Moa
Driver : Teo Xue Ting (F / 23.02.1990)
NRIC : SXXXX551C

2 At about 0955hrs, the front vehicle (V1) suddenly came to an abrupt stop due to a tailback of vehicles. SCJ2781C managed to stop in time due to sufficient safety distance. However, V2 did not anticipate the halt and being too close to SCJ2781C, it collided head-on into the rear of SCJ2781C. The impact of collision resulted SCJ2781C to surge forward and hit V1.

3 We received a claim from V1's workshop. I had informed them that we will not be accepting their claim and for them to approach V1's insurer.

4 We had also tried to claim repair costs from V2's insurer – NTUC. Pls refer to the attached email below.

<< File: ICA (scj2781c).pdf >> << Message: RE: Chain Collision involving Government Vehicle No. SCJ2781C, Other Vehicle No. SGT636C and SGY5392X Along PIE on 15 Dec 2016 (Our ref: MT/0926742) >>

5 Recently Quan De informed me that NTUC had settled their claim amount at 80% liability. They are seeking 20% of the repair costs from ICA.

- 6 Can you assist to follow up with the follow?
1. 20% liability claim from Quan De with regards to damage to V1.
 2. ICA's claim against NTUC.
- 7 Let me know if there are further documents that you need.

Thank you.
