Brief details.

Whilst exiting a car park lot in multi storey carpark Blk 507 Tampines Central 1, I accidentally hid the front of the car park on my left hand side. Came home to informed my husband about the incident and we immediately went back to the said car park to try and leave a note for the affected car owner for him to contact us for the repair costs. Unfortunately, the effected car is no longer parked there. On our way out, we saw a police patrol car parked there and hence went to speak to them about our intentions. Spoke to a Inspector Eric Tham to relate all the details and our intentions. Was advised by him to make a police report to place on record we are not running away from the incident and will pay for the repair to the effected car. Hence if the other car owner makes a report of this incident, kindly advise the car owner to
