Dear Sir/Madam,

RE: Medical Report of TIN WAI LEONG (CHEN WEILIANG) (S7225447C)

MEDICAL REPORT

Dear Sir/Madam,

According to our medical records TIN WAI LEONG (CHEN WEILIANG) was the unfortunate victim of a road traffic accident which occurred on 1 April 2022 at 1840 hrs. Whilst in the driver seat of a car, his vehicle sustained a collision with a car.

There was no loss of consciousness, headache or vomiting. However there was no significant forward impact to the head, or retrograde amnesia. However, he did complain of pain over his lower back.

He subsequently visited our 24-hour Mount Alvernia Hospital Clinic for a medical consult on 2 April 2022. Physical examination revealed no lacerations, abrasions or scars. There was no tenderness elicited over the paraspinal neck muscles, and there was normal range of motion of flexion and extension of his neck. Lateral rotation of his neck was also normal. There were no abnormalities or deformities in the shoulder joint and spine. In addition, there were no other signs of head injury as he was conversant and conscious throughout the consult. Gait was also normal. There was no loss of power or sensation. Lumbar movement was full.

The patient was thereafter counselled and given appropriate advice to monitor his symptoms and to return to the clinic should he experience further headache, pain, or change in vision. Radiographic images would then be done at this point.

The diagnosis was contusion of lower back (muscle) strain.

He was prescribed Anarex and Arcoxia for pain relief, and given 5 days of outpatient medical leave from the 2 April 2022 to 6 April 2022.

Sincerely,
Dr Neoh Jia Quan Leon
