Brief Details.

On 23/04/2022 at about 2025hrs I was making a right turn from St Thomas walk towards River Valley road along a single lane (two-way road) when a motorcycle (FBQ2745H) had suddenly crashed right front bumper of my vehicle (SKU3283P). I immediately made a stop and along with my passenger namely Justin, made a check on the rider who was already lying down on the ground to the left side of my vehicle.

Another of my friend, Doctor Tay Guan Tzu, who was driving behind me had also stopped to render assistance to the motorcyclist. I did not observe any visible injuries on the motorcyclist. My friend Justin had called for the police who then arranged for an ambulance to be sent over.

The ambulance shortly came over and conveyed said motorcyclist to SGH. As such I was unable to exchange any particulars with him. Traffic police had also come down to scene and requested for the SD card of my in car camera, to assist in their investigations, as such i complied.

I had explained to the traffic police that I had made a stop at the stop line of St Thomas walk and making a check on my surroundings before making said turn. I had only noticed the motorcyclist when the collision occurred. Myself and Justin was not injured. The front right side of my vehicle bumper had came off and my vehicle had to be towed due the damages.

I am lodging a report as advised by the attending Traffic Police.
