Describe Circumstances of the Accident

At about 12.30 pm, I was driving straight along Bukit Timah Road (before King Albert Park centre), and heard a loud screeching sound from the back of the car. Shortly after, I noticed a Army 5 tonner driving past my right. Both the 5 tonner and myself parked along side the road to assess the damages. I discovered that the 5 tonner's front left (likely the front wheel and side step) had scraped the back of the right of my vehicle area (area behind the right passenger door). Both myself and the other driver were unhurt. There was no visible damage to the 5 tonner.
