Brief Details.

On the 17th September, at approximately 2200 Hrs, I was picking up a passenger from Raffles City Shopping centre pick up point along Stamford Road. The pick up point is a semi-round about with two lanes, I picked up the passenger from the right lane of the two way lane and proceeded to queue up to exit the pick up point to join the main road heading towards Penang Road.

Upon picking the passenger, my Car (SLM8849E) was queuing on the right side of the lane while the other car (SFN8413U) was on the left side of the two lane exit. Before the traffic was clear for the cars to exit the pick up point, the driver of SFN8413U was already inching forward trying to cut into main road, at this point his car was 1/4 into the yellow box and eating into my lane. My car was stationary as I could not proceed to move forward due to his vehicle already obstructing my path.

Before the traffic on the main road came to a stop for cars exiting the pick up point to exit safely, SFN8413U exited abruptly. In order to avoid hitting the oncoming traffic, SFN8413U swerved into my car which was stationary at the stop line of the exit. The rear left wheel and fender of SFN8413U came into contact with the front left bumper of my car, resulting in deep scratches and perforations on my bumper.

To not block traffic, SFN8413U and I drove to Victoria street where we stopped to take photos and exchange details. SFN8413U denied responsibility and instead accused me of hitting his car. As I do not have an In-Car camera for video recording, I requested my passenger to be witness to the incident. My passenger has agreed to be witness for the event and I have taken down his contact details.

The grab booking ID for the ride is A-3VH2813WWGSS, the passenger name is Bernie, the passenger contact number is +65 92299600.
