Brief Details.

My car SNB6140M was driving along Choa Chu Kang Road on the second lane. Traffic was moderate and green lights all the way.

There was a small road (Phoenix Road) with the taxi SHB5332 turning out onto Choa Chu Kang Road. He misjudged and drove out suddenly to the second lane, side sweeping my car.

I could not brake in time as I was driving along the main road and had the right of way.

A witness stopped his car to check if we are okay, and confirmed that I had the right of way and the taxi should not have expected me to stop due to the green lights. He also gave me footage from his in car camera.

I would be able to pull footage from my in car camera as well.

Separately, based on the video by the witness. The taxi driver was being reckless.

He filtered out to the yellow box, although traffic was moving, expecting the van in the third lane to stop for him.

This also means my vision was obscured by the white van
