Subject: Road traffic accident
Flag Status: Flagged

On 1 oct 2022, I was driving my husband's car (model: grey Honda Civic plate number: SMv2793L) along PIE heading towards Changi. I was travelling at slow speed at lane 1 as it was raining and there were cars in front of our car. I have some space between my car and the car in front of us. At about 1.20pm, around the area before the Clementi flyover, I heard a loud bang on the left side of my car. My daughter sat at the front passenger seat and my son and girlfriend were at the back seat. When I got out my car, I saw the motorbike rider trying to get up from the floor. There were other drivers helping him to get up. The driver of a vehicle behind us came out to help to collect the motorbike rider's handphone and a box of item. At the same time, there was a police car that came by. Apparently, they were on the way to attend to another call. They advised me to drive to the road shoulder. Police (one lady and one man) informed me that the motorbike rider did not want to call ambulance. They asked whether I have any injury. I said I am fine. They witnessed us exchanging nric and handphone number. The police said that we should settle by our insurance. We left the site.
