Brief Details.

On 01/11/2022 at about 1730hrs, I was on my motorbike (FBK847S) travelling along Lorong 4 Toa Payoh, towards Toa Payoh Central. I came to a stop before the entrance of Blk 85A Lorong 4 Toa Payoh while waiting for traffic to clear, before making a right turn in to the carpark. The next thing that I remembered was that I was already on the ground following an accident.

The driver of the vehicle (SNH1456D) that collided into me, came to ask me where I had come out from. However, I do not remember how the accident happened at all. Based on the photos I have taken following the accident, the said vehicle was stopped on the left of my motorbike, slightly behind me. Traffic police and ambulance were at scene. I was conveyed to Tan Tock Seng hospital for my injuries and was given 13 days of hospital leave. I suffered some abrasions, bruises and scratches on my legs, hips, and back. I wish to state that I do not have any video camera attached to my helmet or motorbike.

I wish to further state the paramedics informed me that a female subject claimed to have witnessed the accidents and took more photos of the scene. She provided her contact number (98839223) to the paramedics.
