Brief Details.

On 09/12/2022 at about 1945hrs, I was driving along Victoria Street towards Bugis Junction. At the traffic light of the Victoria Street and Arab Street junction, the lights had turned amber, and I decided to stop my vehicle behind the stop line in the middle lane. After I stopped, the traffic light turned red. Shortly after, I felt an impact from the rear. I made a check and saw that the front portion of a lorry had hit against the rear of my van, causing it to be damaged.

After the accident, I took some photographs and we exchanged particulars. I then continued with my journey.

I later felt some discomfort as a result of the accident but have not seen a doctor as I wish to report the accident before doing so.
