Brief Details.

On the above mentioned date place and time. I was on riding my motorcycle FBJ2175P along Mountbatten Road to deliver food at Roxy Square.

As I was riding on Mountbatten Road I was at the inner right of the lane. Just then a vehicle of SKA9277Z from the opposite direction turned right into Crescent Road. I swerve towards the right to prevent collision but would not brake in time. My bike then came in contact with the vehicle left rear.

I then fall off from the bike and shortly after another rider came to assist me and bring me to the pavement to rest. There after Ambulance came and conveyed me to Raffles Hospital at Bugis area.

X-ray, CT scan and ART were done, and I suffered the following laceration on the left side of face (eyebrow, cheek bone, left upper lip and left inner lip), laceration on the left shoulder, laceration on both knee and abrasion on both hand and leg. I was then discharged on the same day with 5-day MC.

I wish to inform that prior to the incident both lane traffic light was green, and the other vehicle should either turn after I ride pass the junction or should wait for the green arrow light.

Lodging this report for insurance claim.
