Brief Details.

I am the driver and vehicle owner of SJK8558 (Black Honda Freed) and I parked my car front facing at lot 19 around 1pm plus at the Golden Mile Food Centre. I left my car and came back to it at around 2.15pm and noticed my vehicle's front right side and front right tire were hit and damaged with white paintworks and a part of my paintwork came off with badly damaged collision marks left on of my vehicle. There were signs of my tire being damaged by the collision. There was no note left on my windscreen or any sort to inform me that my vehicle was hit. I looked around and started to examine my vehicle and a family of witnesses came forward and told me that a white car SJR5581T hit my vehicle when the driver is attempting to park with head into the lot and quickly reserved and shifted his car away after hitting. The witnesses heard a collision noise and told me the white car did not leave the car park yet and drove to the back. They asked me to quickly search for the car.

I searched around the carpark and found the said vehicle without a driver and was parked in lot 15. I waited a while and another witness approached me saying he is a taxi driver of SHF99P and he saw the white car head in and then reverse out and drove off immediately without even getting down his car to check. I decided to call the police at 2.27pm to ask for help and continue to wait for the driver. I waited for around 15 -20 mins and the driver of SJR5581T appeared. The driver is a male Chinese around 60 -65 years old. I told him that he knock on my car just now and I have reported it to the police and told him to stay and not leave the carpark. He got defensive and asked me to go ahead and report and say he was intending to report the case too. He started to board his car and wanted to drive off and I asked him repeatedly for his contact number. He mumbled some numbers and I asked him what is his name and he said Tan. He did not take down my particulars or ask for any information from me. He showed no actions to attempt and inform me that my vehicle was hit by him if I did not confront him.
