Brief Details.

I exited Edelweiss Park condo towards the right at Flora Road on my motorbike. I had a pillion with me. I was approaching towards Upper Changi Road North, wanted to make a left at that T junction to head home to Pasir Ris. While approaching that T junction, I was on the left side of the lane and the car was on the right side of the lane in front of me. The car in front of me suddenly turned left sharply into Mariam Way out of nowhere without signalling. His left wheel/rim hit me and I fell on the road with my right foot being stuck under the bike. As a rider, my judgement of his route would be going straight because his car was in the right side of the lane plus there was not any signal light. If his car was on the left side of the lane, I would assume he might turn left even though there was not any signalling.

I have an eye witness that saw the entire accident turning sharply without signalling and the positioning of his car on the lane.
