Brief Details.

On 26 Feb 2023, at about 3:35pm, I was driving out from my parking lot at the multi-storey carpark at Yishun Central 1 when my vehicle accidentally brushed against the vehicle beside mine. I wanted to stop to leave behind my contact details but did not have any pen or paper on me. As I was driving back home to deliver food to my family, I did not stop to take pictures. After dropping off the food at home, I drove back to the parking lot, intending to leave a note (I took pen and paper with me) or wait for the driver of the vehicle to inform him or her of the accident. However, when I returned to the scene at about 4:15pm, the vehicle was already gone.

I therefore had no way of contacting the vehicle owner. I did not know that an accident of this nature needed to be reported. If I did, I would have lodged a traffic accident report earlier.
