Brief details.

On 11 Apr 2023, 7.40pm. I was driving SHD6356T (Kia/ Niro/ Blue) along ECP before Bedok Exit about 400 to 500 meters before the exit, and was at the second lane. At that time, I was with my wife Rachel Lian Jia Bao, hp: 97989813. Subsequently, there is one Stride taxi SHD6356T on the 1st lane (extreme right lane) swerved to my lane. He hit the side of my car and swerved back to his lane. My wife viewed the camera footage, it was evident from my back camera footage that he did not switch on his signal before he swerved into us. He only switched it on after he hit us and cut in front of our car right after that.

POLICE REPORT (NP299)

CONTINUATION OF REPORT

Report No. F/20230412/2110

The driver did not stop immediately. I follow the taxi for at least about 300m, sound the horn and flash the light before he finally stopped just before the Bedok exit. After which, we exchange particulars and took photos and video of the damages as evidence. The driver is known as Christopher. HE seemed lost and unclear, and asked if we were changing lanes. We had to tell him that we were not, and it was him who had driven into us. He also repeated multiple times that it was against the law to not bring our physical IC when we are out. I felt threatened and did not understand his intent, and we later found out post enquiring with the police that this is inaccurate.

After which, he admitted hitting my vehicle but commented that the scratch was small. Me and my wife took evidence of the scratch marks found on his car (our car's blue paint was found on his side mirror) and our car (long scratch where our blue paint had been scratched off onto his side mirror). We saw that Christopher reached forward and tried to forcefully push our right-side mirror back to its original position, but we stopped him. We were concerned he would damage the car even more, and eventually moved the mirror back ourselves.

We had agreed not to settle this via insurance and were in favour to settle this amicably. The agreement was for us to go back and assess the damage before contacting him via What's App.

When I reached home, I contacted Christopher to let him know that we were happy to use a cheap service on Carousell to cover the scratch and call it a day. We had shared with him all the photo and video evidence. It was at this point that he turned around and claimed the scratch was not done by him. He then took a photo of his mirror without a scratch mark and claimed that there were no scratches. Our photo was taken at the time of accident, at 7.45pm on 11 Apr with proof of scratch marks. However, the photo we received from him on 12 Apr seems to have been falsified, as our car's paint marks had been removed off from his side mirror.

I am lodging this report for insurance and to lodge a complaint to the taxi company and Traffic Police against him for his driving attitude which could poses danger on the road to both pedestrians and drivers alike. His confusion and lack of alertness is also concerning.
