Dear Officer,

On 8th May, I stopped my car while waiting for the car in front of my car to move, the van behind my car pumped into my car, the collision made my car pump into the taxi in front. I was a victim as I stopped my car properly and kept a distance from the taxi in front of me. While the driver's of van was daydreaming and still accelerated his van. My car was damaged badly and still in workshop. Please kindly let me know if anything else needed. I will attach in the email.

Best regards
