had came into contact with the front vehicle - SKB22E. We established that no injuries was sustained and decided to moved our vehicles further up so as not to caused obstruction for other traffic users. We inspected both cars and took photos of the cars. No damages were visible nor any scratches. SNH9054C had not sustained any damaged. Not a dent nor a single scratch. SBK22E however insisted the rear bumper need to replacement. I was shocked. Only visible was a tiny 3milimeter tear of the wrap which protects the car paint. No paint peel had resulted. The next day, the driver informed me that this will costs him $7000. I was flabbergasted at the amount quoted and warned him to not quote irresponsibly and cheat in making claims as the car cam had captured everything post- accident. . I had advised SNH9054C vehicle owner of the accident. The other driver had proceeded to file a claim to the insurer and the owner had asked me to file police report . I had concurred and followed advise from vehicle owner.
