Brief details.

Dear Sir,

I write this report as a form of record purpose. On the 28th May 23, I was doing charity works and I was supposed to send some food items to an elderly staying there.

My car (SNC54M - Grey Hyundai Elantra) was parked at Lot 143 and the other party's car (SNC8711Y - Red Tesla) was parked at Lot 144 (the driver wasn't in the car).

As I was moving out (I supposed to turn left), I thought I heard some small knock sound. Initially I thought

CONTINUATION OF REPORT

Report No. E/20230718/7002

I must have been careless and had accidentally hit the Tesla on his right body. I left the car to inspect and I didn't saw any marks and as a goodwill gesture, I left a note with my name and contact number on his car just in case if there's really any knocks. I took 2 photos of the car (I have the time stamp embed). It clearly shows no dents or misalignment of the joints.

However, I received a message from the car owner (Vincent - 98245904) and immediately say wanted to claim insurance and showed me some photos which obviously wasn't caused by me. Even though I showed him the photo which I took but he insist to claim me. At that time I feel I could compensate a few hundred dollars (If i really did caused any damage), but to have him report insurance against me when I kind heartedly leave my contacts was pure ridiculous.

As per his TP IO's instructions, I will be messaging him my car plate number as of 18th July 2023 (1214Hr) just as a pure record in case my insurance side need proof.

Thank you.
